Living Out The Reality Of The Resurrection - SUNDAY SUMMARY

This week we want to encourage you to talk through the reality of Jesus' resurrection for you.

As we unpack Paul's words in Colossians 3, we get some insight of what it looks like to have Jesus' Spirit and power living in us.

Read Colossians 3:1-14

DISCUSSION GUIDE

What are some things both from this passage and Sunday's sermon that stand out to you?

How did the prayer from last week help and encourage you to live out the reality of the resurrection of Jesus?

*It might be who I used to be but it's not who I am.
Christ has made me dead to sin and alive to God.*

What would Paul's answer be to these questions?

- Who do you think are you? What's your identity?
- What's your focus?

Why does our identity and focus determine our character?

How do we get this wrong sometimes? What do we miss/forget/mix up and what's the result?

IMR Challenge: Intentional meaningful relationships are an integral part of reminding us of our identity in Christ and challenging us on our focus as His followers. How should we interact in those relationships that will help us better understand our true identity and "set our minds on things above?"
