FUNDRAISING

Biblically speaking, the funds you need to do what God has called you to do are already there. He owns it all! We like to use the term “fund-gathering” not fundraising, because God is eager to provide for the work He is doing. Gathering funds takes diligence and follow-up. It’s crucial you articulate your personal convictions and know your “why” for going on such a trip. Take some time to pray, ponder, and write down your purpose and reasons for serving in this way. As you write and share, tell the story. Use specific stories to help people connect with your passion to go. If you put in the work you WILL raise the support. Create a timeline to send your letters and plan to follow-up and thank donors. Start with friends and family. Help potential donors understand the part they are playing in your ministry and how their generosity is resulting in changed lives. Connect supporters’ partnership with you to transformation in a place of great need. Remember that support comes in many forms. More important than finances, we will need spiritual support through prayer to be effective on this trip.

• Send support letters. (We recommend you send out a min. of 80 letters. Attached are two different examples of a support letter for you to use as a template.)

• Use social media platforms to raise awareness to friends and family.

• Fundraising will be the responsibility of the individual. Expedition Church will not be responsible for planning/executing any fundraising opportunities.
Checks: Supporters should write checks to Expedition Church noting Guatemala AND the recipient of the funds on a sticky note attached to the check (not in the memo).

NEW HOPE IN RWIMBOGO, RWANDA

For 10 years, Expedition Church has partnered with Food For The Hungry to come alongside the most vulnerable and marginalized of Rwanda. The devastation of the genocide that took place in the mid-90s left families broken and in despair. Expedition Church chose to stand in the gap and, thankfully, God has done some awesome things through our relationship in Rwimbogo. Thousands of lives have been changed by people seeking to love marginalized people like Jesus did. Through the years we have...

- Sponsored children of Rwimbogo - providing education, health care, spiritual care, and family support to hundreds of children.

- Provided countless cows, goats, and chickens that reproduce - a sustainable, reproducible engine for daily sustenance and economic health.

Jonas

We have had the joy of knowing and sponsoring Jonas for nearly 10 years. Jonas is aspiring to become an electrician and a pastor.

Naome

On my last visit to Rwimbogo, I was able to visit our newest sponsored child, Naome. She was eager to show me the photos of our children, Carter, Preslie, and Harlan, she had received from our letters.
Expedition Guatemala Trip - Fall 2019

- Provided school desks and supplies for the local primary school that serves thousands of students.
- Built a school teacher dormitory, 10 residential houses for needy families, and school lavatories.
- Raised $70k for a community maternity ward that will provide a safe birthing place for infants and mothers.
- Provided a clean water source that is the most dependable and most used water in the community.
- We have come alongside passionate entrepreneurs, both men and women, to fund cooperative business opportunities and economic engines within Rwimbogo, including tilapia ponds that multiply and basket manufacturing to name a few.
- Gave out over 130 bikes to needy families to increase their earning potential and transportation capacity.
- Our team has organized and conducted multiple pastor and leader trainings and handed out hundreds of bibles within the community in their native language.
- Our partnership has allowed Food For The Hungry to staff the community of Rwimbogo with wonderful, loving, full-time local staff members who daily support families in need.
- Advocated for the most vulnerable in Rwanda raising hundreds of thousands of dollars and inspiring hundreds of people to do something to make a difference.

WHAT’S NEXT

I am so excited to lead our team to Rwanda this September. This will be our final trip to Rwimbogo, as the community graduates from our support and partnership. Due to the programming of Food For The Hungry, the generosity of the people of Expedition Church, and the work of God, Rwimbogo now stands as a self-sustaining community. We will visit to empower and encourage leaders to use the tools and support they have received to further the health of their community.

Our team will be conducting nurse and infant care training at the newly built maternity ward (funded by Expedition Church), leadership and ministry training, visiting families of sponsored children, and meeting with government and community leaders to ensure Rwimbogo’s graduation from the support of Expedition Church transitions well and thoughtful plans for the future are in place.
WE NEED YOUR HELP

I want to celebrate the unbelievable transformation that is taking place in Rwimbogo with my friends and family. I want you to see and experience the work God does in hard places when people live generous lives. I want you to be encouraged that, despite all the wrong in the world, God is still inspiring hope and giving abundant life to all.

I’m convinced that inviting friends and family to partner with me gives you an opportunity you may very well long for. We can be people who make a difference and who refuse to sit idle when there are great needs to be met. We are blessed so we can bless others. Please consider partnering with me and Expedition Church’s team. Play a role in God’s story of hope and restoration in Rwimbogo, Rwanda. Nichole and I thank you for any prayer or financial commitments you make towards this trip.
